

THE BOURBON NEWS.

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY IN THE YEAR.

VOLUME XXV.

PARIS, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1905.

NUMBER 49

MARRIAGES.

The marriage of Mr. Roy Fleming Clendenin and Miss Mary Johnson Rogers was solemnized at the Newtown Christian Church, yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, Rev. Carey E. Morgan, of this city, performing the ceremony. Dr. Hugh Clendenin, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Carrie Hanson Rogers, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. J. D. McClintock, of Paris, and Henry Stone, of Newtown, were the ushers. The bride looked beautiful in a gown of Paris muslin over white silk, with bodice elaborately trimmed with Irish point lace bertha. Her only ornaments was an exquisite diamond brooch. She is the daughter of Mrs. Lou Evans Rogers, of Newtown, her father being the late Warren Rogers, of this county. She is a young lady who possesses all the beautiful traits of character that goes to make a lovely and charming young woman. During her stay in Paris as pupil at Bourbon College she made friends of all who had the pleasure of meeting her.

The groom is clerk in the First National Bank, of this city, popular, industrious and worthy. His close attention to business, his steady habits and genial manners is sure to win for him success in the business world. We join, with a host of friends, in congratulations, and wish that his pathway through life with his lovely companion will always be "strewn with the sweetest of flowers."

The church was tastefully decorated, the altar being banked with palms, ferns and a profusion of white carnations. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to Paris and took supper at the home of the groom's father, Mr. Chas. Clendenin, on Second street. The happy couple left on the 10:30 train last night for Lexington, Louisville and other points of interest, for about a ten days' trip. On their return they will take board with Mrs. Alice Ware, on Fifteenth street, until the groom's residence, now in course of construction on Cypress street, is completed, when they go to housekeeping.

The wedding party was entertained Wednesday evening at six o'clock dinner at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lou Evans Rogers, at Newtown.

The first wedding in the new Christian Church, in this city was on last evening, at 7 o'clock, and proved to be one of the prettiest, if not the prettiest, ever witnessed in Paris. The occasion was the uniting in the holy bonds of wedlock Mr. Luther K. Rice and Miss Idella E. Sparks. At the close of the beautiful solo, "O, Promise Me," sung by Mrs. Fannie-belle Sutherland, the bridal party entered the church from a rear door and formed in a semi-circle under the canopy over the baptistry, where Elder Cary E. Morgan met them, and in a touching and beautiful ceremony united the two loving heart into one.

During the ceremony Mrs. Sutherland sang softly and sweetly "Trauerli." As the wedding party entered the church Miss Sarah Griannan artistically played Lohengrin and as they retired Mendelssohn.

The bride looked handsome, stately and graceful in a gown of ivory crepe de chine over white liberty satin en-train, trimmed with Duchess lace, with long tulle veil that extended to end of train, the veil being caught up with diamond sunburst. Her only ornament was a collar of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley.

Mr. Wm. Bryan was best man and Miss Tansy Berry the Maid of honor. The attendants were Miss Florence Becraft, Miss Nettie Whitsitt, Miss Kate Ingels, Mr. John W. Young, Mr. John W. Jones and Mr. Claude D. Redmon, of Louisville.

The bride's maids were gowned in white liberty silk, profusely trimmed in Valenciennes lace, each carrying a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

The ushers were Bennett Bean, Skinner Kerr, Graham Kerr, Dr. M. H. Dailey, Ben Downey and Dr. C. G. Daugherty.

The church was tastefully and beautifully decorated with plants, ferns, &c., by Honaker.

The couple left after the ceremony for a short trip.

The wedding party was entertained Wednesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sparks, on the Clintonville pike, near town, with a sumptuous 8 o'clock dinner.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mr. Wayne K. Brombley, of Catlettsburg, and Mrs. Mary Hedges Clay, of Lexington. The nuptial knot will be tied at the home of the bride, in Lexington, on Wednesday, June 7th. It will be a very quiet wedding, only immediate relatives to be present. The bride-elect is a wealthy and handsome young widow, formerly of this county, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedges. The groom-elect is one of Catlettsburg's most enterprising citizens, and interested in a number of large business enterprises. He is vice-President of the "No-Labor Washing Powder Co.," at Huntington, W. Va.

Mr. B. F. Skillman, of North Middletown, and Miss Elizabeth Hays, of Frankfort, were married at the home of the bride in the latter city yesterday. This will be quite a surprise to the friends of the groom as it has been kept a profound secret. The couple passed through the city yesterday afternoon for their future home at North Middletown.

Mr. John Wm. Plunkett and Miss Pearl Honaker, both of this county, were married yesterday at the Court House by Judge H. C. Smith.

Martin McGregory, of Fleming county, aged 87, and Mrs. Henry Logan, aged 84, were married in Rowan county. It was the third marriage for the groom and the fourth for the bride.

After a courtship of forty-six years, Edward M. Triplett, of Page county, Va., and Miss Emma Thornton, of Rappahannock county, have just been married. The bridegroom is seventy-six years old and the bride is sixty-eight.

Sale Continued To-day.

Not being able to get through with sale of Mr. Roger Thomson's household goods yesterday afternoon, the sale was continued until 2 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon. All nice goods yet to be sold.

Children's Day Exercises.

The Christian Sunday School Children's Day Exercises, in behalf of foreign missions, will take place Sunday at 11 o'clock in the main Auditorium of the Christian Church.

All members of the school are asked to meet in the Church parlors promptly at 10 o'clock.

The program prepared will be still better than the good ones heretofore rendered, and will consist of marches, drills and songs by the whole school and different classes and pieces by individuals.

The public is cordially invited to be present and witness the pleasing exercises promised.

Sale Continues Over To-day.

Not being able to get through with sale of Mr. Roger Thomson's household goods yesterday afternoon, the sale was continued until 2 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon. All nice goods yet to be sold.

Large Purchase of Hemp.

C. S. Brent & Bro., of this city, purchased this week of Ishman Railey, of Versailles, 300,000 pounds of hemp, at 5 cents per pond. This is the banner purchase of hemp for the season.

If you intend to build any fence, why look any further than the American Field. You can buy it almost as cheap as you can greatly inferior fences and then you are never worried about your stock.

2-2t-f LOWRY & TALBOTT, Agts.

The Grass Seed Crop.

C. S. Brent & Bro. are making preparations to strip the bluegrass seed crop on Mr. Thos. Henry Clay's farm of 4,600 acres. The firm will have thirty strippers in the field and a force of seventy-five men.

The crop this year is not heavy, being about 30 per cent. short of last year. A large quantity of the old crop being carried over.

All Goods Marked in Plain Figures—One Price To All.

"At Fashion's Headquarters"

"THAT TOTALLY DIFFERENT"

P. & J. CLOTHING FOR MEN.

The Top-Notch

Of possibility in scientific Clothes Buildins is reached in the

P. & J. Make.

The fame of this Clothing grows with each year among the well-dressed men from all over Kentucky. The master of this great establishment has developed the art of stylish clothes-making to its highest attainment. You are cordially invited to look or buy.

SPRING SUITS,
TOP COATS,
RAIN COATS.

"KORRECT SHAPE" $3.50 and $4.00.

Nine times out of ten your feet tire and ache because of ill-fitting shoes. Put your feet in a refreshing "ache proof" pair "Korreet Shape." They relax the feet and relieve the mind. Sold only by P. & J., Shoeologists.

"Makes Life's Walk Easy."

PARKER & JAMES, Paris, Ky.

Y. M. B. O. D.

Head to Foot Outfitters.

WM.

SAUER,

The Up-to-Date

Down-Town Grocer,

AUCTION SALE

—OF—

WHISKEY!

In accordance with the provisions of section 4779 of the Kentucky Statutes, JULIUS KESSLER & Co. will, on

Tuesday, June 20, 1905,

sell at public auction on the premises of their

PARIS DISTILLERY,
PARIS, KY.

the following described Whiskey, or so much of it as may be necessary to pay the liens thereon and the expenses of sale:

Five barrels of Sam Clay Bourbon Whiskey, serials 83815-10, produced in April, 1896, at Paris Distillery No. 77, Paris, Ky. Amount to be realized $210.34 and expenses of the sale and cost of advertising.

Warehouse charges are in default for more than one year.

For further information inquire of A. W. Cottingham, Superintendent, Paris, Ky. 26-2-9-16

DR. L. H. LANDMAN,

At the residence of Mrs. Smith Clarke, 505 High St.

TUESDAY, JUNE 13, '05.

Hand Strippers.

We have a good Hand Blue Grass Stripper that will gather more seed with less effort than other makes. Try one.

The Best Freezer.

Try a White Mountain Ice Cream Freezer, because it is the best. We sell them. WM. SAUER.

LET THE BOOKCASE GROW WITH THE LIBRARY.

It costs but little to make a start, and then you can add selections as you need them.

Section Top and Base
Only $5.25.

When you want protection for your books, remember the best is found in the Half Sectional Book Case.

Dust Proof, Ball Bearing, No Un-sightly Irons.

TRANSYLVANIA COMPANY,

Leading Stationers and Printers.

LEXINGTON, KY.,

Right at Street Car Center.